

Annex 12

Sources of topical information for identification of the environmental values on the territory of the Management Unit and beyond it that are or potentially may be affected by the management activities

- 1 . For ecosystem services – information from the HCV report, District plan for development of forest territories, management plans of protected territories and zones, specialized researches, etc.
2. For biodiversity – data from the inventories of the Management Unit, specialized scientific researches, HCV report, management plans of protected territories and zone, orders for promulgation of protected territories and zones, topical lists of rare and threatened species at the Bulgarian Red Data Book., CITES, Bern and Bonn Conventions and other relevant lists on national and European level, etc.
3. For water resources – topical information about water bodies on the territory of the Management Unit from check-ups made by the River-basin Directorates and Regional environment inspectorates (regional authorities of the Ministry of environment and waters) related to significant problems of the management of water on the territory of the Management Unit and outer territories outside it.
4. For soils – soil maps, information from the inventory of the Management Unit, specialized scientific researches, management plans of protected territories and zones, etc.
5. For the landscape values – reports on the condition, specialized scientific researches, management plans of protected territories and zones, etc.
6. For all values 1-5 – consultations with local and national experts and interested stakeholders.