

SCIENCE-BASED TARGET SETTING

Workshop for public input on target-setting guidance

May 16, 2014 Workshop:

The Royal Institution of Great Britain
21 Albemarle St
London W1S 4BS

May 22, 2014 Workshop:

World Resources Institute Offices
10 G Street, 8th Floor
Washington, DC 20002

AGENDA

Workshop Objectives:

- Create an understanding of approaches to science-based corporate target setting and the need for increased ambition in achieving reductions
- Get input on a new sector-specific methodology to science-based target setting
- Get input on proposed guidance for companies implementing science-based target setting

8:30 - 9:00	Coffee and Continental Breakfast
9:00 - 9:10	Welcome Andrew Steer, CEO, World Resources Institute (DC workshop) Paul Dickinson, Executive Chairman and co-founder, CDP (London workshop)
9:10 - 9:30	Agenda overview and Update on Climate Science and the Role of Business
9:30 - 9:40	Mind the Science, Mind the Gap Project overview
9:40 - 10:45	Overview of sector-specific approach to science-based target setting Presented by Ecofys Company examples

10:45 - 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 - 12:15	Discussion on draft sector-specific method to science-based target setting
12:15 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 – 14:45	Concurrent Break-Out Groups Organized by sectors
14:45 – 15:15	Groups report back
15:15 - 15:30	Coffee break
15:30 – 16:00	Overview of draft guidance outline
16:00 – 16:45	Plenary discussion on guidance outline
16:45 – 17:00	Next steps
17:00 - 18:30	Cocktail Reception

