

Madagascar National Parks - WWF Partnership Landscapes

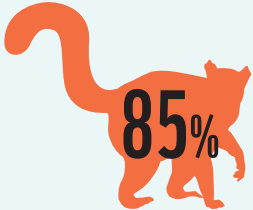

- Priority area boundary
- Protected Areas & National Parks

The partnership in numbers

The partnership land area contains:

of critically endangered lemurs of all endemic bird species

2,762,536 total hectares of protected areas and national parks under the partnership agreement

Percentage of species in Madagascar that are endemic

5%

Madagascar is home to 5% of all the world's plant and animal species.

Key Species

Silky Sifaka Lemur

Radiated Tortoise

Rosewood Trees

Mangroves