

Sign up to our monthly newsletter!

View it in your browser

N(EU)WS, WWF Europe Newsletter, November 2015

All roads will lead to Paris - A world tour around WWF's mobilisation for the climate!

The whole world is getting ready for Paris and so are WWF teams in Europe - and all around the world. In the next four weeks, from the Arctic to the Himalayan, in Europe and the rest of the continents, hundreds of actions and initiatives will mobilise millions of people to take up the Paris Climate challenge in December.

We want People to be the one deciding on the future of the climate. Their mobilisation in and around Paris will be the centre of our actions. What best to portray this than WWF France's campaign? Read more

Stories of hope

From the coffee farmers in Uganda to the indigenous communities of Nepal, WWF will bring to you the many faces of sustainable development. As of 16 November, follow the Facebook and Twitter channels of the European Year for Development.

Do you plan
an event?
Do it green!

ecoguide.wwf.eu

LATEST NEWS

More WWF news

Call not to revise Birds and Habitats Directives

29 October - EU governments, MEPs, NGOs and over 520,000 citizens all asked the European Commission to keep nature laws in their current form and instead to focus on better implementation.

Climate baton passed to world leaders

23 October - As the UN climate talks concluded in Bonn, it's up to political leaders to resolve key issues for finalising a fair, ambitious and transformative global climate agreement.

Ending Illegal Fishing in the EU: IUUWatch.eu

22 October - The website provides news from a variety of sources on illegal fishing globally together with a map with red, yellow and green cards issued by the EU Commission to IUU countries.

Evidence of company illegal activities in Romania's forests

21 October - WWF demands a full investigation and submits EUTR complaint after report documents how large amounts of products from illegally harvested timber were sold throughout the EU.

Coal is choking and renewable energy growing

21 October - WWF report highlights that globally, coal mining companies are on the edge of the financial abyss and ever cheaper renewable energy is attracting more investment than coal.

TOP TWEETS @WWFEU

Follow

WOW! First 9 countries, now EU Parliament tells @EU_Commission not to revise #nature laws! #NatureAlert

RETWEETS
44FAVORITES
35

1:24 AM - 29 Oct 2015

Follow

4 million: the number of people employed by solar & wind power globally #COP21 #SAIREC2015 wwf.eu/cop_paris

RETWEETS
68FAVORITES
31

11:05 PM - 6 Oct 2015

MULTIMEDIA

Nothing's as ugly as overfishing

'A sustainable seafood choice has positive impacts on the livelihoods of people in Europe and the world.' Sabine Gisch-Boie, Austrian Head of WWF's Fish Forward.

The Fish Forward's "Ugly" campaign raises awareness of social and environmental impacts of Europe's seafood consumption, particularly on developing countries.

STORIES FROM AROUND EUROPE

Tony Long's new life on wheels discovering the Danube

"If you want to know the history of Europe, you have to know the Danube". This is why after spending 25 years as WWF EU Director as one of the leading voices on EU environmental affairs, Tony Long decided to jump on his bike and cycle almost 3,000 km down the Danube. Read his interview and discover this wonderful part of Europe.

More on WWF's activities:

Climate & Energy - EU & the world - Natural Resources -

General EU Affairs - Sustainable Economies

This newsletter is produced by WWF European Policy Office.

The WWF European Policy Office contributes to the achievement of WWF's global mission by leading the WWF network to shape EU policies impacting on the European and global environment.

EU Transparency Register Nr: 1414929419-24

You receive this newsletter as you are representing citizens, governments or public institutions making important decisions on the future of the planet's natural environment, or you signed up directly via our website.

Copyright © 2015 WWF European Policy Office, All rights reserved.

Sign up - unsubscribe to this newsletter