We are deeply saddened by the loss of lives around the world from the coronavirus outbreak and our thoughts are with the families who have lost their loved ones or who are sick. Given the unprecedented circumstances, WWF advises everyone to join Earth Hour at home or online.

Earth Hour activities go digital this year, but remains a socio-environmental phenomenon that is celebrated every year by millions of people around the globe, including Cambodian citizens. It is an occasion where ordinary individuals demonstrate their appreciation of the environment and nature and commit to making a change for good. Earth Hour unites people to save the planet.
