BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE FOR STUDY

Regional tuna fisheries management organisation processes (RFMO) and platforms have strengthened to allow for broader stakeholder participation which has been a fairly new element in some Pacific Small Island Developing States (SIDs).

As a result, in many Pacific SIDS, there are now much stronger processes in place for consultation on oceanic fisheries management between government agencies and non-governmental interests and an associated strengthening of the structures for representation of non-governmental interests – though progress in this direction nationally is uneven or yet to be fully realized.

Securing broader stakeholder participation in oceanic fisheries management at the regional level has been more elusive, although there are a number of cross-cutting issues with social, economic, communications and environmental dimensions that would warrant engagement by non-state actors including Pacific Non-Governmental Organisation (NGOs) and Civil Society Organisation (CSOs) to potentially include Tuna fisheries within existing work programmes.

OBJECTIVE

The key objective of this report is to improve WWF-Pacific's understanding about the role of CSOs and NGOs operating across the major sub-regions of the Pacific including Micronesia (FSM, Kiribati, Palau, , Nauru), Polynesia (Cook Islands, Samoa/American Samoa, Tonga, Tuvalu) and Melanesia (PNG, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu and Fiji); their operating context, institutional structure and areas of focus to help determine CSO/NGO's that WWF-Pacific would engage as part of the project to promote, develop and strengthen broader stakeholder awareness & engagement in oceanic fisheries management.

The broad criteria for selection and assessment of CSO/NGO organisations to be considered includes international, regional and sub-regional NGO/CSO groups that work on fisheries, oceans and or oceanic wildlife conservation in the Western and Central Pacific Ocean; including NGO/CSOs that work on broader economic/trade issues; Private-sector; Communications and media; law and policy reform advocacy; labour NGO's (including maritime or seafarers unions); climate change and community-level rights (where related to oceans and coasts).

The consultant, in preparing the final report, conducted the following including reviewing and documenting of existing CSO's and NGO's operating across the major sub-regions of the Pacific including Micronesia (FSM, Kiribati, Palau, Tuvalu, Nauru), Polynesia (Cook Islands, Samoa/American Samoa, Tonga) and Melanesia (PNG, Solomon Islands and Fiji); including providing a descriptive analysis of each organization's operating context, institutional structure and area(s) of focus and general description of works programmes and staff capacities ; provide recommendations on areas of focus the CSO/NGO organization would engage on in the context of broader regional tuna fisheries management and provide recommendations on areas WWF-Pacific would support CSO/NGO organisation engagement in oceanic fisheries management.

INTRODUCTION

Tuna fisheries management is a cross cutting issue for Pacific Island countries. It impacts economies, the environment, and social relationships. It therefore requires broader stakeholder participation to adequately inform processes and to improve the assessment of impacts. WWF-Pacific has been tasked with carrying out awareness and advocacy on tuna fisheries issues in the Pacific Islands region including having greater engagement and collaboration with CSOs and NGOs. The initial mapping of these organizations provides a starting point for this task. This exercise covers both environmental and non-environmental organizations that work at a regional level and/or a national level.

METHODOLOGY

The primary methods of collecting data are archival and electronic. Archival research will involve the use of annual reports and strategic plans, whereas electronic research will involve organizational websites. The two methods are likely to overlap as the latter is in most instances a repository of the former. Where possible, information will also be gathered via emailed correspondence. The types of information gathered are: vision, mission and goals of the organization; and existing programs including collaborations and targets. This lends itself to the qualitative analysis of data.

VISION

The BirdLife Partnership wishes to see a world where nature and people live in greater harmony, more equitably and sustainably.

MISSION

The BirdLife Partnership strives to conserve birds, their habitats and global biodiversity, working with people towards sustainability in the use of natural resources.

COMMITMENT

- To prevent extinction in the wild
- To maintain and where possible improve the conservation status of all bird species
- To conserve the sites and habitats important for birds and other biodiversity
- To sustain the vital ecological systems that underpin human livelihoods, and enrich the quality of people's lives
- In the process, BirdLife will empower people and contribute to the alleviation of poverty, and strive to ensure sustainability in the use of natural resources

GLOBAL CONSERVATION STRATEGY

Our strategy, developed bottom up by the BirdLife Partnership, directly supports the commitment of the world's governments to take urgent and effective action to halt the loss of biodiversity.

PROGRAMMES

Global International Programmes

- Climate Change
- Forests of Hope;
- Sites & Habitats (IBAs & KBAs)
- Invasive Alien Species
- Local Engagement and Empowerment
- Marine
- Migratory Birds
- Preventing Extinctions
- Capacity Development

TARGET POPULATION

Local communities

PARTNERSHIPS

In the Pacific Islands, BirdLife partners include a network of seven national organisations supported by a small BirdLife Secretariat in Fiji, including the local people that work with the organisations along the way. The Pacific Partnership consists of:

- BirdLife Australia (Australia - Partner)
- NatureFiji-MareqetiViti (Fiji - Affiliate)
- Palau Conservation Society (Palau - Partner)
- Royal Forest and Bird Protection Society Inc (New Zealand - Partner)
- Société Calédonienne d'Ornithologie (New Caledonia - Affiliate)
- Société d'Ornithologie de Polynésie Manu (French Polynesia - Partner)
- Te Ipukarea Society (Cook Islands - Affiliate)

OPPORTUNITIES FOR ENGAGEMENT

- Research on seabird/tuna fishing interaction
- Bycatch mitigation
- Fundraising
- Sustainable resource management

VISION

We seek a world of hope, tolerance and social justice, where poverty has been overcome and all people live in dignity and security.

MISSION

CARE works around the globe to save lives, defeat poverty and achieve social justice.

PRINCIPLES

Independent of political, commercial, military, ethnic or religious objectives CARE promotes the protection of humanitarian space. We provide assistance on the basis of need, regardless of race, creed or nationality addressing the rights of vulnerable groups, particularly women and girls.

CARE follows a set of Programming Principles in our emergency, rehabilitation and long-term development work. CARE's principles are aligned with those of many other humanitarian agencies, and include:

- Promote empowerment
- Work in partnership with others
- Ensure accountability and promote responsibility
- Address discrimination
- Promote the non-violent resolution of conflicts
- Seek sustainable results

CORE VALUES

- Transformation
- Integrity
- Excellence
- Equality

PROGRAMMESVanuatu

Focus on helping communities prepare for emergencies through the development of sustainable emergency preparedness plans, and gain the skills and knowledge needed to prevent, prepare for and respond to disasters, and to rebuild afterwards.

Papua New Guinea

Focus on managing natural resources, increasing crop diversity, sustainable livelihoods; access to non-formal education and small grants; finding innovative ways to earn a living; providing training and support in governance, gender awareness, health and nutrition, and HIV prevention and care; and addressing gender-based violence and aim to increase women's opportunities to participate and thrive.

International

- Food and Nutrition Security and Climate Change Resilience
- Humanitarian Response
- Right to a Life Free from Violence
- Sexual, Reproductive and Maternal Health and Rights
- Women's Economic Empowerment

TARGET POPULATION

Women and girls are the central focus as poverty until all people have equal rights and opportunities.

PARTNERSHIPS

Local organisations, NGOs, and Government agencies

VISION (Oceans)

Healthy oceans benefiting all life on Earth in perpetuity
CI is building the tools, partnerships and programs to address the pressures on the ocean — and the negative impacts on species, ecosystems and ultimately on people's lives.

Long-term Goal

To safeguard the world's essential ocean and coastal biodiversity and most productive ecosystems in order to maximize the long-term ecological, social and economic benefits for people and nature

MISSION

Building upon a strong foundation of science, partnership and field demonstration, CI empowers societies to responsibly and sustainably care for nature, our global biodiversity, for the well-being of humanity.

APPROACH

- Protecting our natural wealth
- Fostering effective governance
- Promoting sustainable production

PROGRAMMES

Focus Areas

- Climate
- Food
- Forests
- Fresh Water
- Global Stability
- Livelihoods
- Oceans

CI's Oceans works includes studying and measuring the ocean by using the latest methods and tools like the Ocean Health Index. In addition to helping create and strengthen marine protected areas and networks, CI works on new models for ocean management fishing practices

VISION

A sustainable and equitable world free from poverty

MISSION

Live & Learn educates, mobilises communities, and facilitates supportive partnerships in order to foster a greater understanding of sustainability, and to help move towards a sustainable future.

PRINCIPLES

- Develop environmental and development education approaches based on community reality and perceptions, resulting from community participatory research analyses.
- The well-being of whole communities (not formal community leaders only) is the central priority of all programs.
- Take an integrated sustainable development approach while being focused on specific entry points into communities such as water quality, forest or reef conservation.
- Make project evaluation (and the process of sustainable development) meaningful to communities.

PROGRAMMES

- Peace Building
- Environmental Governance
- WASH
- Sustainable Use of Biodiversity
- Climate Change
- Sustainable Energy
- Waste Management
- Disaster Preparedness
- PES (Payment for Ecosystem Service)
- Human Rights and Gender

GOALS

The Strategic Vision outlines Live & Learn's commitment to achieving eight goals, covering eight key thematic areas:

- Safeguard drinking water, improve hygiene and access to basic sanitation
- Mobilise communities in sustainable use of terrestrial and non-terrestrial resources
- Improve community governance and decision-making on environmental resources
- Strengthen peace and dialogue at the community level
- Heighten climate change awareness, advocacy, community mobilisation and adaptation planning
- Promote and advance appropriate and renewable energy technology at the community level
- Develop community-based waste reduction and management strategies
- Heighten disaster prevention and preparedness at the community level

TARGET POPULATION

VISION

Vibrant, resilient, and empowered communities who inherit and maintain healthy, well-managed, and sustainable marine resources and ecosystems

MISSION

To advance the practice of community-based marine resource management and conservation by providing a forum for practitioners (communities, traditional leaders, individuals, organizations, and researchers) to share experiences and information. We work collaboratively to spread resources and knowledge on locally-managed marine areas (LMMAs) and community-based adaptive management (CBAM) and to promote and improve this approach.

CORE VALUES

- Commitment – as a way to stay focused on goals
- Teamwork – because we can achieve more working together than we can on our own
- Objectivity – to enhance our science and our relations with our partners
- Transparency – to promote open and honest sharing of information and experience
- Empowerment – of individuals to take responsibility and be accountable for results
- Respect – that makes it possible to challenge each other without threatening our relationships
- Fun – as a way to stay energized and motivated
- Quality – in all that we do.

PROGRAMMES

The Network provides information and resources on locally-managed marine areas (LMMAs) and community-based adaptive management (CBAM), and training in project design, monitoring, data management and analysis, fundraising, and communications to name a few.

GOAL

To create additional employment and income for poor women and men in rural and urban areas through sustainable and broad-based pro-poor growth

KEY PRINCIPLES

- Systemic change
- Sustainability
- Scale
- Facilitation

STRATEGY

MDF stimulates pro-poor growth within these three sectors as they show opportunities for increased growth and have the potential to make a positive impact on poverty.

PROGRAMMES

MDF does not work directly with the poor as this is unlikely to lead to lasting improvements. Instead it partners with a variety of businesses willing and able to invest in changes that improve business practices. This could include offering more affordable products and services, expanding distribution, or providing better information.

TARGET POPULATION

Businesses, Business regulators

PARTNERSHIPS

Fiji

VISION

Enduring partnerships that conserve our land and sea to improve quality of life for communities across Micronesia.

MISSION

We build partnerships, raise and manage funds, make grants, influence policy, and provide conservation and financing expertise.

GOALS

- To conserve the ecosystems identified as priorities by Micronesia's conservation policy frameworks (i.e. SDPs, NBSAPs, LAS, etc...);
- To reverse degradation and reduce pressure on ecosystems by promoting sustainable productive processes in collaboration with local communities;
- Promote community awareness about biodiversity conservation and support related environmental education programs that prepare communities to carry out biodiversity conservation; and
- Strengthen the capacity of community networks, NGOs, and other appropriate organizations to improve biodiversity conservation in Micronesia.

VISION

International

A just world without poverty. We want a world where people are valued and treated equally, enjoy their rights as full citizens, and can influence decisions affecting their lives.

Pacific

Pacific Island peoples are leading and shaping their own development and where their voices are heard and acted on by those in power.

MISSION

Oxfam in the Pacific is part of Oxfam, an international confederation of 18 organisations working together with partners and local communities in more than 90 countries. In the Pacific, we work with civil society organisations, community groups, the private sector and in academia to mobilise the power of people against poverty.

PURPOSE

To help create lasting solutions to the injustice of poverty. We are part of a global movement for change, empowering people to create a future that is secure, just, and free from poverty.

VISION

A Pacific region that is characterized by the values of unity, solidarity, justice, peace, dialogue and leadership after the heart and mind of Jesus, and a spirituality that gives grounding and substance to PCC's existence and to the work it does.

MISSION

- Encourage and promote a spirit of ecumenism among the Churches in the Pacific.
- Encourage and support member Churches to seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit in studying and working towards the full visible unity of the one undivided Church.
- Help members evaluate their work in mission and to help them co-ordinate, organize and plan together so that wherever possible their personnel, finance and material resources can be more effectively utilized in joint action for mission.
- Encourage and promote among members a greater awareness of justice, peace, integrity of creation and human development among the people and nations of the Pacific region and the world.
- Facilitate mutual consultation on issues affecting Church relationship and other issues of common concern among the members.
- Encourage and promote active participation by members in the wider ecumenical movement.
- Be a means whereby the Churches of the Pacific can help each other and help Churches and other organizations in other parts of the world in times of natural disaster and special need, or to secure help from the Churches in the other parts of the world in times of similar natural disaster or need.
- Encourage and promote programmes and disseminate information for the preaching and spreading of the Word of God.
- Undertake such co-operative activities and programmes on behalf of members as the Assembly may from time to time approve.
- Encourage and promote inter-faith dialogue.

PROGRAMMES

Core

- Ecumenism in the Pacific (theological reflection and training and education, governance and leadership, ecumenical formation)
- Stewardship of God's creation (climate change, resettlement, environment)
- Self-determination (health and Church, HIV and AIDS)

Cross-cutting Programmes (Strategic sectoral programmes in PCC language)

- Women – gender-based violence, male advocacy
- Youth Empowerment – seen as the vehicle to implement activities and policies

PIFS VISION

"Leaders believe the Pacific region can, should and will be a region of peace, harmony, security and economic prosperity, so that all of its people can lead free and worthwhile lives.

We treasure the diversity of the Pacific and seek a future in which its cultures, traditions and religious beliefs are valued, honoured and developed.

We seek a Pacific region that is respected for the quality of its governance, the sustainable management of its resources, the full observance of democratic values and for its defence and promotion of human rights.

We seek partnerships with our neighbours and beyond to develop our knowledge, to improve our communications and to ensure a sustainable economic existence for all."

(Auckland Declaration, April 2004)

PIFS MISSION

Our mission is to ensure the effective implementation of the Leaders' decisions for the benefit of the people of the Pacific.

PIFS GOALS

Our goals are:

- to stimulate economic growth and enhance political governance and security for the region, through the provision of policy advice; and to strengthen regional cooperation and integration through coordinating, monitoring and evaluating implementation of Leaders' decisions;
- to bring about strengthened coordination and collaboration across and between stakeholders on cross sectoral ocean issues ;
- enhancing coordination, collaboration and integration – with a focus on development effectiveness and improving return on investment;
- assisting the Commissioner to undertake high level-advocacy and awareness activities;
- providing expertise and support to Pacific Island Countries and Territories on cross-sectoral ocean issues, such as biodiversity in areas beyond national jurisdiction;
- developing coordinated approaches to measurement and reporting – lifting accountability;
- promoting Pacific Island Countries and Territories establish maritime boundaries and extended continental shelves;
- analysis of linkages between oceans and climate change, ensuring the Pacific is well placed to meet the challenges ahead;

In addition technical and scientific support for the Commissioner is also provided by the CEOs of relevant Pacific regional organisations (CROP Agencies), particularly the Secretariat of the Pacific Community (SPC), the Forum Fisheries Agency (FFA), the Secretariat of the Pacific Regional Environment Program (SPREP) and the University of the South Pacific (USP), and through their CROP Marine Sector Working Group.

PROGRAMMES

The POA is an open-ended and voluntary information-sharing and coordination partnership between stakeholders with a genuine interest in the sustainable development, management and conservation of the Pacific Ocean and its resources.

The POA provides – through a combination of virtual platforms and face-to-face meetings – a space and common ground to bring together partners such as national government agencies, regional organisations, private sector, academia and research organisations, civil society organisations and communities, who are not currently represented in a coordinated way on ocean issues.

The POA is not a decision-making partnership; however, recommendations may stem from partnership discussions that relevant governments and/or POA partners may choose to progress and/or implement. The POA provides, amongst other things; a mechanism for inclusive consultation in the development and implementation of policy and programs, provision of technical advice as it relates to the sustainable development, management and conservation of the Ocean. It will be guided by the needs of the region under the auspices of the Pacific Ocean Commissioner.

VISION

A world where the diversity of life thrives and people act to conserve nature for its own sake and its ability to fulfill our needs and enrich our lives.

MISSION

To conserve the lands and waters on which all life depends.

PROGRAMMES

- Scientific research to inform conservation practices
- Policy and Landscape conservation

On Oceans

- Focus on coastal waters where development and use pressures are greatest and where people are most dependent upon the oceans
- Design and implement fisheries management approaches that promote stable supplies of seafood, secure livelihoods for fishing communities and marine conservation
- Focus on the need for improved overall governance, policies and management of our oceans at all scales, from individual sites, to regional, national and multinational levels balancing development and conservation needs

Papua New Guinea

- Empowering local people to design sustainable futures for the lands and waters that surround them.

Activities

- helping grow Fair Trade cocoa crops
- drawing up networks of marine protected areas in the Coral Triangle
- helped establish the Papua New Guinea Mama Graun (Mother Earth) Conservation Trust Fund — the first of its kind in Papua New Guinea — designed to provide long-term, uninterrupted funding for biodiversity conservation work

Solomon Islands (Choiseul Province)

- Building resilience to climate change

Goals

- creation of a network of protected areas that stretches from the region's lushly forested ridges to its coral reefs; and
- establishment of at least one marine and one terrestrial protected area in each of Choiseul's 12 districts

Activities

- Collection of data on the region's flora, fauna and landmarks, cataloguing species including hornbills, sharks and flying foxes

Plans

- Targets for ecosystem-based adaptation, including natural defenses against climate change such as mangroves, barrier reefs, and wetlands that can be preserved and restored
- Food and freshwater resources such as community gardens and water catchments
- New practices that limit the degradation and exploitation of important resources.

Micronesia

- Helping the Micronesia Challenge go further by supplying the scientific know-how and conservation creativity needed to develop new environmental approaches.

VISION

International

Our Vision is a world in which government, politics, business, civil society and the daily lives of people are free of corruption.

MISSION

Our Mission is to stop corruption and promote transparency, accountability and integrity at all levels and across all sectors of society. Our Core Values are: transparency, accountability, integrity, solidarity, courage, justice and democracy.

VALUES

Transparency, Accountability, Integrity, Solidarity, Courage, Justice, Democracy

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

1. As coalition-builders, we will work cooperatively with all individuals and groups, with for-profit and not-for-profit corporations and organisations, and with governments and international bodies committed to the fight against corruption, subject only to the policies and priorities set by our governing bodies.
2. We undertake to be open, honest and accountable in our relationships with everyone we work with, and with each other.
3. We will be democratic, politically non-partisan and non-sectarian in our work.
4. We will condemn bribery and corruption vigorously wherever it has been reliably identified.
5. The positions we take will be based on sound, objective and professional analysis and high standards of research.
6. We will only accept funding that does not compromise our ability to address issues freely, thoroughly and objectively.
7. We will provide accurate and timely reports of our activities to our stakeholders.
8. We will respect and encourage respect for fundamental human rights and freedom.
9. We are committed to building, working with and working through Chapters worldwide.
10. We will strive for balanced and diverse representation on our governing bodies.
11. As one global movement, we stand in solidarity with each other and we will not act in ways that may adversely affect other Chapters or the TI movement as a whole.

Adopted by the TI Annual Membership Meeting (AMM) in Prague, 06 October 2001 updated by the TI AMM in Bali, 28 October 2007 and by the AMM in Berlin, 16 October 2011.

ABOUT WANTOK MOANA

Wantok Moana is a name given to the School of Marine Studies Students Association. Wantok means tribe, while Moana is ocean. The Association consists of current students, Undergrads, Post-grad and Masters. It also comprises of the staff of the SMS, former staff and students as well.

The Committee is charged with assisting the students academically and welfare needs. Through our networks, we are able to secure employment and attachment for our members.

Members are involved in Marine Conservation and Awareness and have volunteered for activities and contributed towards the Association's objective.

We try to put out a monthly newsletter to inform our members and interested parties about what current projects we are engaged in.

We have a constitution which governs our existence, under the University of the South Pacific Student's Association, USPSA.

Issues raised by our members with regards to their learning environment are addressed accordingly with the appropriate parties and to date we have managed to address all issues.

MISSION

- To provide a forum for marine awareness, conservation and management issues amongst science and management students of the School of Marine Studies.
- To provide opportunities for WM members to obtain hands-on work experience, either in a voluntary capacity or otherwise, with the government, non-governmental organisations and the private sector.

PROGRAMMES / ACTIVITIES

- Provide support to the School of Marine Studies at events such as the USP Open Day, World Maritime Day
- Clean up campaigns

TARGET POPULATION

Undergraduate and Postgraduate students enrolled in marine science and marine management courses offered by the School of Marine Studies, Faculty of Science, Technology and Environment)

PARTNERSHIPS

Wantok Moana has done work with:

- The School of Marine Studies, USP (assisting with School and University events)
- Captain Cook Cruises Limited (conducting coral reef surveys)
- The Coral Reef Alliance (conducting SCUBA diver-shark questionnaire surveys 2012)
- The Pacific Centre for Environment and Sustainable Development, USP (organised and provided session moderators, recorders and logistical support for the 2014 Sustainable Sea Transport Talanoa)
- The Pacific Centre for Environment and Sustainable Development, USP (organised and provided session moderators, recorders and logistical support for the 2014 International Conference on Renewable Energy and Climate Change)
- World Wide Fund for Nature (provided volunteers for 2014 turtle Fiji survey)

VISION

Connected, resilient, ecoscapes that provide habitat for abundant and diverse species while sustaining natural resources, livelihoods and culture for Fijian communities. In order to communicate the value of EBM for Fiji, the program has adopted a slogan of: "Healthy people, processes and systems".

b

To preserve the functional integrity and resilience of Fiji's priority ecoscapes by integrating community-based adaptive management with science-based solutions in order to protect iconic species, maintain habitat connectivity and preserve livelihoods with the informed, active and sustainable support of local and national stakeholders.

VALUES

1. Fiji's cultural and natural heritage are mutually dependent.
 - Preservation and strengthening of traditional management strategies is essential for conservation of biodiversity.
 - Preservation of iconic species is crucial to maintenance of cultural traditions.
2. Sustainable livelihoods rely on maintaining or restoring ecological processes and diversity across Fiji's ecoscapes.

GOAL FOR MELANESIA

Ensure that ecosystems and species are managed sustainably to support local livelihoods and conservation for the long-term.

OBJECTIVES

- Assist communities and governments in effectively protecting at least six important landscapes and seascapes across Melanesia.
- Significantly improve the status of 10 threatened species and species groups, with effective management under local and nationally recognized plans.
- Be recognized by Melanesian governments and other NGOs as the premier regional institution to provide evidence-based guidance that informs species conservation and ecosystem protection.
- Develop targeted education and awareness programs about human impacts on natural systems and options for management, which will build on Melanesian cultural values of stewardship.
- Leverage the resources and strengths from our existing country programs in Fiji and Papua New Guinea to develop new country programs in the Solomon Islands and Vanuatu.

PHILOSOPY

TIS encourages innovative, proactive and positive outcomes to environmental problems, by working with individuals, families, community organizations, private sector and government. We provide leadership on key environmental issues and a voice for local, regional and nation-wide environmental groups. We recognize and incorporate into our campaign objectives the connection between environmental sustainability and social and economic justice. We believe individuals must avoid actions that have negative effects on the wider community, including plants and animals and future generations. We promote the philosophy that we do not own our land and marine resources but we borrow them from our ancestors.

MISSION

The mission of the Society is to promote balance and harmony, which should characterise the relationship of the Cook Islands people with other components of our environment.

OBJECTIVES

To:

- disseminate information and create public awareness amongst members and the community regarding environmental matters
- demonstrate sound ideas and practices for the purpose of promoting conservative and sustainable development through carefully selected field projects; such demonstrations to draw on the traditional knowledge and practices where they are considered beneficial
- co-operate with similar organizations within the Cook Islands and throughout the world for the purpose of advancing the course of conservation and sustainable development

PROGRAMMES

- Biodiversity
- Youth
- Climate Change
- Ecologically sustainable development
- Waste management

TARGET POPULATION

PARTNERSHIPS

- IUCN
- Bird Life International
- Cook Islands Whale Research,
- Cook Islands Whale and Wildlife Centre
- Titikaveka Growers Association
- Takitumu Conservation Area
- Natural Heritage Trust
- Cook Islands Voyaging Society

OPPORTUNITIES FOR ENGAGEMENT

- Sustainable livelihoods
- Awareness on corruption
- Human trafficking
- Training on monitoring of boats and catch
- Sustainable fisheries
- Seabird research and surveys

On sustainable (offshore) fisheries:

- Monitoring government policy on the offshore fisheries industry and the licensing of long line fishing
- TIS has concerns over the close relationship between the government fisheries regulatory agency (the Ministry of Marine Resources) and a foreign fishing association and the lack of transparency regarding the terms and conditions of licenses issued.
- TIS is also concerned with the MMR policy to increase fishing activity when other Pacific Islands countries are adopting more conservation measures and scientists have recommended that fishing effort be reduced for one species
- TIS continues to provide feedback on government fisheries policy including the draft offshore fisheries policy and the National Plan of Action on Sharks.
- TIS also monitors fisheries regulations, despite never being given the opportunity to comment on these regulations before they are passed.

VISION

Women empowered, recognized, valued and participating in all aspects of sustainable fisheries.

MISSION

To facilitate networks and partnership to enable opportunities for women to be informed about all aspects of sustainable fisheries in Fiji and increase the meaningful participation of women in decision making and management at all levels of sustainable fisheries in Fiji.

VALUES

- Empowerment of women to achieve economic and social justice;
- Inclusivity of women, men and their families in fisheries and the WiF Network-Fiji. Membership is open to any individual or organization with an interest in women in sustainable fisheries;
- Trustworthy - to be trusted by the communities, government, our members, donors, staff and those who work with us;
- Non-political – we are not aligned with any political party or group;
- Environmental sustainability is core in everything we do;
- Integrity – we expect high levels of integrity from our members, staff and those who work with us;
- Accountable to our members, communities and donors; and
- Commitment to women in fisheries, our members, our work, our stakeholders and the environment

FOCUS

- Helping to build an environmentally sustainable, socially appropriate, and economically viable fisheries sector in Fiji in which the contribution and role of women in this sector is recognized and valued.

PROJECTS

- Mud crab awareness
- Financial literacy and business
- Training programs
- Gender and fisheries workshops
- Photo voice
- Capacity needs assessment in mud crab fishery

Strategic Priorities

- Improve livelihoods and food security opportunities for women in fisheries
- WiFNetwork – Fiji recognized as research hub, clearing-house of information, and repository for issues related to women in fisheries
- Advocate for improved policy and policy implementation for greater gender equality in all aspects of fisheries

ANALYSIS OF OPPORTUNITIES FOR ENGAGEMENT

There are five areas in which the WWF Sustainable Offshore Fisheries and Seafood programme can engage with the CSOs and NGOs listed in this report. These are:

- capacity building;
- advocacy;
- sustainable livelihood programmes;
- research; and
- information sharing

These areas are interrelated.

Capacity Building

There is an opportunity to build the capacities of youth and communities to be advocates/ champions and on-the-ground lobbyists for a sustainable fishery. Young people can also be trained to be monitors/ observers of boats and catch.

The organisations that may best fit capacity building collaborations are:

- Pacific Youth Council
- Live and Learn
- Pacific Conference of Churches
- Pacific Islands Forum Secretariat – Engagement with Non-State Actors Programme
- Pacific Network on Globalisation
- Pacific Women
- Te Ipukarea Society

In-country Opportunities

There are a number of organisations that have offices in more than one Pacific island country. This provides even greater opportunity to work in-country. These organisations are listed below, and include the Pacific Disabilities Forum and Pacific Youth Council. While these two latter organisations are headquartered in Fiji, the umbrella structure of the organisations means that they both effectively have sub-offices in the countries listed.

ORGANISATION	COUNTRY OFFICES
CARE	Papua New Guinea, Vanuatu
Foundation of the Peoples of the South Pacific International	Fiji, Kiribati, Papua New Guinea, Vanuatu
Live and Learn	Fiji, Kiribati, Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu
Oxfam	Fiji, Vanuatu
Pacific Islands Association of Non-Governmental Organisations	Fiji, , Kiribati, Solomon Islands, Tuvalu, Vanuatu
Save the Children	Australia, Fiji
The Nature Conservancy	Federated States of Micronesia, Palau, Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands
Transparency International	Fiji, Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu
World Vision	Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu, (TBC – Fiji)
*Pacific Disabilities Forum	Fiji, works with Disabled Peoples Organisations in all Pacific Island countries
*Pacific Youth Council	Fiji, works with member National Youth Councils in Cook Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Marshall Islands, Nauru, Niue, Palau, Solomon Islands, Tonga, Tuvalu, and Vanuatu.

CONCLUSION

The involvement of CSOs and NGOs in sustainable tuna fisheries management is necessary as the fishery cuts across the social, natural, political and economic environments. Sustainable management is important not only to island communities that rely heavily on the ocean for sustenance and economic survival but also to the commercial viability of a multi-billion dollar industry. The CSO Mapping exercise is the starting point for greater collaboration between WWF Pacific Sustainable Fisheries and Seafood Programme and a variety of CSOs and NGOs. It provides a guide to who those CSOs and NGOs are and how collaboration may take place.
